All the woe and suffering which uman hearts endure are to be seen in the central building of the Asso-dated Charities, and the lines of tragic those who come to ask for work for a bit of bread for a hungry lld. Three women, who are soon to come mothers, and who have neither dicine, food nor any one to look for care and support, appealed, ough friends, yesterday for aid. as written in his face, and it was ot until he was leaving that he illdly suggested that if Dr. Buchanan ad an extra pair of shoes he did not eed, he would like to have them. glanced dejectedly at his own shoes rough which unstockinged toes eped, and thrust his hands deeper to his pockets, thet Dr. Buchanan ight not see the tears that started

CHILD IS SOLE SUPPORT OF DYING BROTHER His story was simple and direct. His other and an older brother, who is in the last stages of tuberculosis, are spendent upon his efforts, and when the little fellow lost, his job at cutting ather there was no more in the house nave been paid in full, so these two lasked Dr. Buchanan if he would see them through their difficulty. If it is found that they can really get employment from the city, their taxes will be paid. Still another, a visitor from Dregon Hill, presented a water bill for 12 which he was unable to pay. He had neither money nor food. Notwithstanding that lack of water may breed lisease, the city carefully sees to it that all its water bills are paid. If they are not paid, then it is required they are not paid, then it is required under the ordinance that the water be

Such cases are but a representative ew of the many which come daily to he Associated Charities And the organization is hard put to i' to meet the need. It is dependent solely upon vol-untary subscriptions. There is not, as some think, any aid from the city or the State. The Associated Charities is supported entirely by voluntary sub-scriptions, by the people who are in-terested in its work and believe in its

Several people of means who had beard much of the work of the Asso-ciated Charities, and who wanted to learn for themselves really how great the demand for help is, called yester-day morning, and asked that they be allowed to visit the homes of some of the applicants, so that they might see THAT'S THE TREATMENT HE NEEDED of life, that little children are going hungry. It is the children who, perhaps, make the greater appeal, for, as there said of her little girl. "It does a part of the scheme of things that a fourteen-year-old boy with a bonny face and sparkling eyes should wander face and sparkling eyes should wander unshod through the streets looking for work, so that he could support an ill mother and a tuberculous brother. He had worked in other times, when there was work to be had; but now he has nothing, nothing but the appeal in his eyes and the drawn lines about his lips, lips that were so apparently made to whistle and laugh.

There came one man yesterday af-ternoon who did not want to beg. He wanted only a loan, and he would pay

NEW STOCK OF PROVISIONS

FOR NEEDY FAMILIES

All the provisions stored in the building were exhausted on Saturday night, and another supply was gotten in yesterday. It consisted of ten barrels of potatoes, 400 pounds of sugar, four bags of onions, 200 pounds of delectapples, four bags of cornmeal, weighing ninety-six poundis each, and 200 pounds of meat. This supply will last two or three days. And in the building there were cared for forty Richmond men and thirteen transients. It is a tremendous work that the Associated Charities is facing, and the end is not yet. More contributions are needed, more like that sent in by Boy Scout Troop No. 9, from whom a check for $1 was received yesterday, and like the check for $2.50 sent in by Esther Circle of St. Mark's Church. The Times-Dispatch will receive and acknowledge promptly all contributions for this work.
